

Confined Space Awareness

A seminar for all field personnel, management personnel, safety directors, and owners.
Presented by: Dan Parks or Jared Weber, ABC WI Safety Managers

At the heart of a successful project is people who have the proper knowledge and skills for all aspects of their job. Confined Spaces require special training and equipment in order to safely complete work. Confined Spaces kill construction workers every month in this country – let’s make sure you make it out alive!

What’s Covered:

This 4-hour interactive course will cover -

- Identify what types of areas are confined spaces (permit-required confined spaces vs. non-permit spaces)
- Analyze the hazards found in confined spaces
- Assess which confined spaces can be reclassified
- Evaluate various fall hazards
- Understand the operation, use, and limitations of air monitoring equipment
- Identify proper ventilation techniques
- Identify proper non-entry rescue techniques and equipment
- Understand the permitting procedures
- Roles of the permit space entrant(s), attendant, and supervisor

Cost:

$99 for each person from ABC member firm
$199 for each non-member invited guest
